

WERK X-PETERSPLATZ

POSITION

WERK X-Petersplatz is a contemporary cooperative house for innovative theatre and socio-politically relevant cultural events in the first district. In the center of Vienna, the house has made a name for itself as a progressive spoken theatre for young and emerging, but also established groups.

However, artistic discourses are also negotiated throughout other contemporary artistic formats.

The goal is to keep the doors wide open for all artists, as well as interested visitors and to promote and demand the refreshing variety and diversity of the artists.
